Hawk And Crow Club

Hardin county has a Hawk and Crow Club and at its annual meeting last week the members showed up with 550 heads for 92 hawks and 468 crows killed by them during the year. Cash prizes were awarded to the winners. The work of this club could be well emulated in other Kentucky counties, and do lots of good for the farmers.

Farmers' Chautauqua for Madison County.

Since the wonderful success of the Farmers' Chautauqua in Warren county, which just closed, there has spread a wide interest in this new movement over the State. President Crabbe, of Eastern Kentucky State Normal School, is considering the inauguration of just such a series of Farmers' Meeting in Madison county. Last Saturday afternoon a committee of representative farmers met in Richmond and appointed Jesse Cobb as chairman, Walter Bennett and H. B. Hanger as vice chairmen. A general meeting of all those interested in this progressive line of education among farmers is planned for next Saturday, August 23, at 3 p. m. at the Court House. All are cordially invited.

Probably the Chautauqua will be held at three different and accessible places in the county, during three successive weeks, beginning on a Sunday. The topic for the Sunday programs will be The Rural Church and how to make it serve the community. Addresses, sermons and discussions will be heard by both clergy and laymen. During the week a continuous program will be carried on, morning, afternoon and night, including instruction in agriculture, dairying, all kinds of farm demonstration, school hygiene and sanitation, cooperative marketing, fruit growing, etc., etc. Experts from all over the country will speak and demonstrate their specialties. A leading feature will be the round table discussions and stereoscopic lectures on vital questions relative to the farm and the rural community.

Welcoming The Coming and Speeding The Parting.

OPINION OF AN EXPERT.

E. C. Walton, editor of the Richmond Climax, than whom the State has never produced a more courteous nor more loyal friend, relinquishes the editorial charge of the Climax Monday into the hand of his brother, Col. W. P. Walton, of this city, and returns to his new-found home in Florida, whither he goes to enter the daily field at Orlando.

Kentucky newspaper men regret to give up Ed Walton. He has won both fame and fortune at his chosen profession, and he deserves all he has won.

A man of kindly instincts, of gentle breeding, finished in equipment as he is broad and manly of purpose, he takes to his new field of endeavor the experience and the judgment of mature years and thorough training.

Mr. Walton publishes the following feeling valedictory in the Climax Friday, which explains the arrangements made for the perpetuation of the Climax. (Article follows.)—Lexington Herald.

GLAD WE ARE BACK.

Col. W. P. Walton, of Lexington, the well known editor-politician, has again demonstrated that he cannot keep out of the active editorial game by acquiring the interest of his brother, E. C. Walton, in the Richmond Climax, and of which it is said he will take active next week. Although he has been able conducting part of the editorial page of the Lexington Herald, Col. Walton just naturally was not satisfied until he got another paper in which he would have the whole "say so." The editors and politicians all over the State will welcome Col. Walton's re-entry into active newspaper work.—Saturday's Louisville Times.

PREDICTS SUCCESS.

Col. W. P. Walton, the veteran journalist of this city, who for several years has been contributing editor of the Lexington Herald, will on Monday assume editorial charge of the Richmond Climax, succeeding his brother, E. C. Walton, who has retired from that paper to return to Orlando, Fla., where he has formed a partnership with George C. Keller, formerly of this city, in the publication of the Daily Reporter-Star.

The Climax is one of the oldest and best papers in the State, and under the management of Col. Walton, who is universally regarded as one of the ablest editors in Kentucky, will no doubt take a new lease on life. While Lexington will regret to lose him from its ranks of newspapermen, there is some consolation in the thought that he will make the columns of the Climax team with his brilliant scintillations that made the old Stanford Interior-Journal, of which he was the proprietor and editor for more than a quarter of a century, one of the most widely quoted country newspapers in the South.

E. C. Walton formerly owned and edited the Orlando Daily Reporter-Star, but sold the paper to Mr. Keller some two years ago. The business has grown to such proportions that Mr. Walton decided to buy back a half interest, which he succeeded in doing last week.—Lexington Leader.

For Sale.

On Saturday, Aug. 23rd, at 2:30 p. m., we will offer at public sale in front of the court-house, one 1910 model E. M. F. Touring Car. This car has just been remodeled, all the parts are new and it is in first-class condition. Any person interested can call at our garage and try out the car. The Citizens' Garage Co., Richmond, Ky. 92-3f

NEWS NOTES

Postmaster General Burleson inaugurated the new parcel post rates by mailing to President Wilson a box of fine Georgia peaches.

Gov. Hodges, of Kansas, has been flooded with letters urging that he issue a proclamation setting aside one day for special prayers for rain.

W. A. Coffey, for many years a member of the Lincoln county fiscal court and one of that county's very best citizens, is dead in the McKinney section.

Miss Kille Smith, who is armless, marked her ballot with her foot when she voted at the first election in Chicago under the new woman suffrage law.

George McDowell, formerly of Spar-tanburg, S. C., died in Baltimore as physicians made a last effort to save his life from a growth that 200 operations had failed to remove.

No rain has fallen in the Hustonville section of Lincoln county since May 22, and vegetation is literally parched. The corn crop in that county will be very short this year.

After a Sunday-school picnic in Chicago, a park policeman rounded up 42 stray infants and had to spend $1.75 in peanuts and candy to keep them quiet while he was finding their mothers by telephone.

Hon. J. Will Clay was declared the winner of the Senatorial nomination in the Montgomery, Clark, Bourbon district by a majority of seven. His opponent, Rufus Hadden, will likely appeal to the courts for a reversal on account of irregularities.

W. J. Baxter, who was defeated for the democratic nomination for attorney of Jessamine by 34 votes by W. M. Watts, contested on account of spoiled ballots, but Judge Hardin decided in the Lincoln circuit court against him and the case will be taken to the Court of Appeals.

Mrs. Eugene Sterret, of near Skillman, Ky., is critically ill of blood poisoning. About ten days ago while feeding the chickens, a hen pecked her on the hand. Blood poisoning developed and it was found necessary to amputate her arm. Her physicians do not hold out any hope of recovery.

We receive every morning a full line of green vegetables and would be glad to supply your wants. Phone 72 & 144 Covington Thorpe Co. 57-1f

We have arranged for a Special Sale

On the celebrated Stearns & Foster Mattress and are offering this most Comfortable, Durable and Sanitary of all Mattresses, in selected patterns of the best qualities of Satin-finish, Dust-proof Tickings—WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

Beware of so-called "Special Sales" on "Cotton-felt" or "Felt" Mattresses—said to be the "genuine kind" and offered at such ridiculously low prices as are sometimes seen displayed. You do not know WHAT sort of material has been hastily STUFFED into the ticking. From a Sanitary standpoint, it may be vile; unfit for any person to sleep upon. As for genuine Comfort and Durability, such Mattresses are utterly worthless. It don't pay to buy them.

Stearns & Foster Mattresses have a laced opening (PAT. applied for) through which you can see and examine the inside of the Mattress you GET. That's the safe way to buy a Mattress. You know what you are getting.

Stearns & Foster Mattresses are made of Clean, Sanitary Cotton; felted into hundreds of little webs forming many Springy, Buoyant layers standing nearly three feet high. These layers are then LAID BY HAND and compressed to ONE-SIXTH their original height and encased in the ticking; then tufted to just the proper tension so as to be Soft, yet Firm, half yielding to your figure, but supporting it in perfect relaxation.

You will say—

"I never Knew a Mattress could be so Comfortable."

That's just what satisfied users of Stearns & Foster Mattresses are saying. You owe it to yourself to get one and enjoy rest that is Refreshing—Comfortable—Healthful.

You don't have to be put to the expense and inconvenience of sending a Stearns & Foster Mattress away to be "Made Over" or "Renovated." They never require it. An occasional Sun Bath keeps them fresh and clean.

Don't Fail to attend this Sale. Come today.

Select the Mattress you want—NOW. Don't put up longer with that old uncomfortable Mattress.

A Comfortable Night's Rest on a Stearns & Foster,

To The Patrons of The Climax.

As announced by my brother, Mr. E. C. Walton, in the last issue of the Climax, a change has taken place in the editorial management of this paper. That announcement was had enough, but the worst is yet to come. The man who is to take the place of my brother is a pod, trying to fill his place in your midst and I fear there is no help for you. An unbidden guest is rarely regarded with patience and I fear that I will prove no exception, but I am going to try my best to deserve your good will and patronage and try, try again if I fail at first to succeed.

I do not feel that I come among you as a stranger. The greater part of my life has been spent in counties adjoining or contiguous to the good county of Madison, while engaged in editing papers at Stanford and Lexington. For fourteen years I have been on daily papers, the work on which is very different and decidedly more strenuous than on a paper of less frequent issue, but I hope to soon adapt myself to the new order of things, which were so long the old with me, and give you a paper worthy of your patronage and to which you can point with pride, as the political platform usually recite.

Born, reared and grounded in the Democratic faith, I could not make the Climax otherwise than it has always been, a faithful exponent of the cause of the people, and I shall at all times and on all occasions defend the principles of my party. Years have, however, taught the wisdom of appeal to intelligence instead of to prejudice, and I am sure that there will be no rough and tumble political fights between our friend, Ed Smith, of the Pantagraph, and ourselves as characterized our enthusiastic younger days, before the hand of time had sprinkled snow on our gradually disappearing locks.

If I succeed in making the Climax the newsy and pecuniary success I hope to do, I shall move my family here and live and die with you. It is with me to do the former and you the latter, and we shall see what we shall see. Meantime I shall reduce promises to performances and beg your indulgence till I get the lay of the land and find the best facilities for getting all the local news, which will be the first consideration.

My local contemporaries will always find me courteous and neighborly and if unpleasantness should arise they will have to start the rough house, for I am as mild a mannered man as ever scuttled a ship or cut a throat.

W. P. WALTON.

Camden For Governor.

We do not know whether it is agreeable or not to him, but the suggestion of Mr. Johnson N. Camden, of Woodford, for Governor strikes us as peculiarly appropriate. A man of fine executive ability, a real specimen of Kentucky's best citizenship and a Democrat who has done much for his party with his time and his money, the party would honor itself in honoring him with the office.

Besides Kentucky owes him a debt of gratitude for his splendid conduct of the last Presidential campaign in the State, which gave President Wilson so great a plurality. The writer was with him at headquarters in Louisville, as press agent, and knows how his whole soul was wrapped up in the success of Democracy. He gave his time and his service unstintingly, always with an eye single to obtaining the best results, and was himself the largest contributor to the campaign fund.

Mr. Camden is a progressive man, foremost in every effort for the improvement of conditions and thoroughly impressed with the idea that farming is the grandest calling of man. Tomorrow he will give a barbecue to which every Kentucky farmer is invited, where topics especially interesting to him will be discussed and burgoo and barbecued meats will be dispensed without stint and without pay.

The Bull Moosers, Republicans and sore-head Democrats got together Saturday at Lexington and nominated a full ticket for county offices. They were emboldened to this action by their success four years ago, but things have changed since then and no one now doubts the success of the Democratic ticket, headed by former County Judge Frank A. Bullock. The so-called fusionists have not made good and they have no subsequent judge now to issue injunctions and threaten indictments by special grand juries. Their platform is sort of a "catch 'em a' comin' and a gwine" concern and is as long as the moral law, promises being made that could not be filled if they would, or would not if they could.

ARMY officials complain of the falling off in enlistments. The reason for it is obvious. Not many young men who expect to become anything are willing to give up seven of the best years of their life with no promotion higher than or derly sergeant. The term of enlistment it has been increased from three to seven years. Besides, too, few young men of spirit want to submit to the slave life and be bossed around by whipper snappers with shoulder straps, who cut such fantastic tricks as to make the angels weep.

THERE is one inequality that P. M. General Burleson should cut out of the parcels post. He has increased the limit to 20 pounds and reduced the postage, but continues to let books be prohibited from being sent by it, which are still subject to the former high price. It is a tax on knowledge and a discrimination inexcusable. Besides, too, if the book weighs over four pounds it won't be carried at any price.

ACCORDING to Col. Goethals, chief engineer, the first ship will pass through the Panama Canal in October, when the greatest undertaking of modern times will be accomplished. It has cost a mint of money, but the end will justify the outlay and mayhap, too, the means that President Roosevelt adopted to secure the route, but we doubt it.

EDITOR KNOTT, of the Louisville Post, is still showing in long-drawn out and very prosy editorials how dense is his ignorance on the currency question. Like Vanderbilt, we think it was, said of an egotistic son-in-law, Knott can be more kinds of a d--n fool than any man who ever happened to have a newspaper.

We buy all kinds of country produce, pay the highest market price. Give us a call. Covington Thorpe Co. 57-1f.

E. C. Wines & Co., the up-to-date druggists, have just installed something new under the sun in the shape of a candy refrigerator, which keeps candy both fresh and sanitary. It is not only a good thing for that which it is intended, but an ornament to the store as well.

The Terrible Shock.

"Doctor," said the beautiful young woman who became the wife of a rich old man, "tell me the worst. I will be brave and try to bear it."

Leading her gently from her suffering husband's bedside, the doctor answered: "Nerve yourself, then, for a terrible shock. He's going to get well."—New York World.

About fifteen guests were present and the occasion was an enjoyable one that will long be remembered.

Opera House Tonight

Will show three new pictures and a good vaudeville act. The pictures will be a Keystone comedy, "The Speeders," with Ford Sterling and Flo LaBadie; a Reliance drama, "His Uncle's Heir," with Irvine Cummings and Norma Howley; the third reel, a Broncho, one reel, "All Rivers Meet at The Sea." The vaudeville act of Smith & Adams in "The Lady and the Hat Pin," is catchy and the best orchestra that you ever heard in a picture show. 99

High Prices For Horses.

High prices for horseflesh again rule in England. J. T. Jones, a British sportsman, has bought what is now considered the world's race horse, Prince Palestine, and paid for him $228,000. This horse is regarded as the finest "stayer" in Britain and will command a big fee as a sire. The next best price paid for a racer was about $187,500, paid some time ago for Flying Fox. Another famous horse, Ormonde, was sold the late Duke of Westminster for $60,000, and subsequently went to McDonough, an American millionaire, for $156,250. August Belmont some time ago bought the horse, Rock Sand, for which he paid $125,000.

Figure Out Relationship.

What is regarded by the pension bureau as the history of one of the most remarkable families ever coming beneath its notice was contained in a letter received from Dr. Wm. Warren, of St. Joseph, Mo. The letter was in reply to one from the pension commissioners, asking Dr. Warren for his family history, so that a readjustment in his pension might be made under the new law. Dr. Warren replied: "I do not know whether there was a family record of the births of all father's children, of whom there were 25 in all, by three wives, who were sisters, and of whom the first two wives were twins and the third wife also was one of the twins. My mother had triplets, three boys, of whom I was one. She had no other children. All of the other wives' children were twins. In all of the three wives there were thirteen boys, all of whom were soldiers. All of the 25 children are dead but myself." The veteran is 76 years old. He will get an increase of pension.

BABY'S HANDS TIED.

Mother Tells How Saxo Salve Conquered Eczema.

"Last fall we noticed small rough red spots coming on baby's hands. The skin was very dry and she kept scratching them until they would bleed. We lost a good deal of sleep with her. Finally we took her to the doctor and he treated her several weeks, but it kept spreading until we had to keep her little hands tied and used everything we could hear of for eczema. Finally our druggist told us about Saxo Salve. We tried it and one and a half tubes had entirely cured her. Her little hands are smooth and not even scratched. Mrs. Mort Stephenson, Lebanon, Ind."

You cannot do better than to try Saxo Salve for eczema, or any skin affection—we cheerfully give back your money if it does not help you. B. L. Middleton, Druggist, Richmond, P. S. For poor, thin, impoverished blood try Vinol on our guarantee.

In the $1,500 stake for saddle horses at the Mexico, Mo., fair, Kentucky bred horses won first and second prizes awarded. My Major Dare, owned by Miss Loula Long, of Kansas City, got the blue ribbon and Princess Eugenia second. My Major Dare was sold last winter by P. W. Ray, of Bowling Green, to Paul Brown, of St. Louis, for $7,500, and this spring he was sold to Miss Long for $10,000, the record price for a saddle horse. Writing to the Farmers Home Journal, Col. E. H. Taylor, of Frankfort, says: "I purchased on the 4th day of July, 1912, 42 head of Hereford calves weighing 620 pounds. I put these calves the same evening on grass on my Thistleton farm. I grazed them until the 12th of November, when I put them in the barn, where they were carefully fed until I sold and delivered them the 25th day of July, 1913, at an average weight of 1,270 pounds (losing one of the calves by death meanwhile). I would like to know through your experienced selves whether any one in the history of feeding has put more weight on a lot of calves within the same length of time than I have done?"

Rubber Tires.

WITH OUR EXCHANGES.

Perhaps His Satan.

A Philadelphia preacher says he got a wife in answer to prayer. Wonder with whom he will take up the case when he wants a divorce?—Danville Messenger.

Why Women Are Discontented.

Census returns just issued in Great Britain shows that there are in the islands 1,178,317 more women than men. This helps to explain the shocking and extraordinary conduct of the suffragettes making clear the impossibility of marriage and normal lives for a great body of women, and the hopelessness of their situation unless conditions are somehow to be changed.—Shelby Record.

Boosting Camphor.

By adding an ounce of camphor to each five gallons of gasoline an English automobilist claims to have effected a fuel saving of 20 per cent. What he has actually accomplished, if his claim can be substantiated, is to increase the price of camphor.—Louisville Times.

How They Will Look.

"Women must be clothed with the ballot" shrieks a Western suffragette. As the shorter ballot is being adopted all over the country, if woman should clothe herself with the ballot, a bevy of society girls would look like a bunch of ball-tossers.—Owensboro Inquirer.

Think What We Do!

Kentucky paid $35,300,000 in internal revenue taxes, and holds third place in collections. Anderson county pays into the Federal treasury nearly $3,000,000 a year of that total, yet no man has ever been named for Collector from Anderson county in this revenue district. We deserve better treatment. Think what we do!—Anderson News.

GOES TO THE SEAT OF RHEUMATISM

Rheuma quickly expels the cause and restores the whole system.

If you suffer from any form of Rheumatism, remember that RHEUMA goes to work quickly to remove the cause, not simply to relieve the distress. Many years ago it was demonstrated that it goes to the seat of the disease and expels the poisonous matter that has accumulated; does this through the natural channels—the kidneys, bowels, liver and skin. These are the sewers of the system and RHEUMA leaves them working naturally and allows the strength to come back in full force. RHEUMA is guaranteed by B. L. Middleton, who sells it for 50c a bottle.

A creature conforming with the generally accepted appearance of the devil stole the body of a man in the neighborhood of Bass Montgomery county, Ark., on Tuesday, according to S. H. Farrow, of Cedar Creek, and vouched for by four supposed eye witnesses, is the story that has gained much comment. Farrow says the body stolen was a farmer's.

The eye witnesses to the spook occurrence were keeping watch at the house when the weird creature entered. He carried a heavy chain across his shoulders, wore a white robe and a long growth of red hair, they say. His face was apparently painted red and on his forehead a small set of horns had been fastened. The watchers became so alarmed that they fled and when they returned the coffin was empty.

Northern Louisiana Plantation For Sale.

This plantation contains 1,800 acres, of which 800 are in a high state of cultivation. Remainder of the place is in virgin hardwood timber, which, if worked out and sold in log at present prices, will pay twice for the land it stands on.

The soil of this place is of alluvial deposit, rich and productive. It is suitable for corn, cotton, cane, oats, alfalfa, lespedeza and rice. This land is high, dry, well drained, and does not overflow.—It is in the artesian water belt.

The property is located on good graded road in four miles of railroad, is close to churches and good school.

The improvements consist of an eight room, two story residence, together with all necessary outbuildings, two mule barns, implement house, auto house, blacksmith shop, cotton gin and 25 good tenant houses.

This property, which is owned by an old gentleman, who, on account of extreme age, is desirous of retiring from farming, can be bought at the low price of $25 per acre, on very liberal terms, and at that price is included all the implements necessary for the cultivation of the place, and thirty two head of good young mules and horses.

This plantation, now situated with high class labor, is located in the neighborhood of the large plantation recently purchased by Messrs. Thomas H. Collins and J. P. Long. It is in a high state of cultivation in one of the best live stock sections of Louisiana, and would make an ideal stock ranch. To any one who is looking for an investment, I will say that there is not an acre of this plantation that won't produce any acre you pick in Kentucky in dollars and cents when it comes to the investment.

I will take pleasure in furnishing any further information you may wish.
